

ESCI-UPF BARCELONA SUMMER SCHOOL 2025

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Our programme is fully modular and highly flexible: each module lasts one week, and students can complete the four-week programme or select the weeks that best suit their needs and interests.

The programme aims to immerse students in an international business environment by teaching them the key aspects of intercultural negotiation, particularly on sustainable development and entrepreneurial opportunities in the European context.

DETAILS

Taught entirely in English.

Each module has 22.5 hours of learning, equivalent to 3 ECTS credits.

Students can earn up to 12 ECTS credits by attending the Summer School in full.

All modules are taught on campus in the centre of Barcelona.

Aimed at undergraduate students and postgraduate students.

WHAT DO OUR STUDENTS SAY

"I loved the experience! The topics were diverse and fascinating, especially European history and its rich cultural diversity. The classes were engaging yet accessible, so everyone could keep up while staying interested. Going to the university each morning was such a great feeling. I've already recommended the programme to my friends in Vienna—it was truly wonderful!"
